

UROLOGY

Position Highlights

Join our team of experts

- Collegial group of four Board Certified Urologists with plans to grow to eight
- Full-scope urology including trauma and robotics
- Outpatient practice and hospital call coverage
- Established referral base assures full patient panel

Requirements

- Board certified/eligible
- Fellowship training welcome but not required

Community Highlights

- A community of 500,000 residents – almost one million in Kern County
- Excellent schools, great neighborhoods and affordable housing
- Proximity to world-class beaches and the Sierra Nevada mountains
- Rated as one of the “Best Places to Live in California” by US News
- Easy access to museums, concerts, golf courses and more
- In the San Joaquin Valley, 90 minutes from LA – two hours to Disneyland!

Compensation and Additional Benefits

- Competitive compensation package, commensurate with qualification and experience
- Full-time, employed position
- Commencement bonus
- Relocation reimbursement
- Excellent medical, dental, vision insurance options
- Vacation, sick, holiday, paid education leave
- CME Reimbursement
- Retirement, vested day one
- Malpractice and tail coverage provided
- Loan Forgiveness Program qualification
- Cap-exempt H-1B Visa eligible

Opportunity Highlights

- Stable and growing department
- Assist in growth of the department
- Clinical-Educator faculty position
- Safety net and private practice model clinic sites
- Ambulatory surgery centers
- Flexible and equitable scheduling

Kern Medical and Adventist Health – A partnership for a healthier Bakersfield; together, the largest healthcare coalition in Kern County working to elevate the health and well-being of our community.

Kern Medical Overview

- Only designated Level II trauma center for Kern County and also serves as a tertiary medical center (222 beds)
- UCLA-affiliated teaching hospital
- Kern Medical trains more than 200 medical students, residents and fellows annually
- Graduate medical education programs in the specialties of:
 - Emergency Medicine
 - Internal Medicine
 - Obstetrics & Gynecology
 - Psychiatry
 - Pharmacy
- Fellowship programs in Child & Adolescent and Addiction Psychiatry and Infectious Disease
- Accredited stroke center
- Twelve outpatient clinics for nearly 180,000 patients
- Two mobile medical units
- Simulation center for medical education

Adventist Health Overview

- A faith-based, nonprofit health system serving West Coast and Hawaii communities with over 20 hospitals, 37,000 associates, physicians, allied health professionals and volunteers
- Three hospitals across Kern County: Bakersfield (254 beds), Delano (156 beds) and Tehachapi (25 beds)
- Over 20 medical offices
- Four outpatient imaging centers
- Two mobile medical units
- Hospital@Home
- Comprehensive cancer center
 - Clinical research site
 - Only triple accredited program in Kern County
- Wound care center
- Wellness center
- Bariatric surgery COE
- Robotic surgery
- Four outpatient rehabilitation clinics